Lake Towerrinning

On our arrival we were met by caretakers, Paul & Mareena. After paying your fees you drive to your site. Everyone was there Friday afternoon, with early arrivals having the fire pit going. There were 6 vans – Ronnie, Steve, Norma, Arthur, Beryl, Allen, Karen, Stuart, Wally, Lyn, Terry and Sue all settled in to happy hour. Nice to catch up with Ronnie & Steve. Early afternoon seen everyone rugged up and around the fire. We had a visit from Paul to tell us the group that had booked the camp kitchen had cancelled due to bad weather coming over the weekend.

Saturday

Norma opened the rally in the camp kitchen and welcomed everyone. She had invited the owners Ian & Theresa Peirce to morning tea. Ian gave a short talk about the Lake and Moodiarrup. Norma asked Theresa to draw the raffle – 1st Lyn, 2nd Norma (Win the Raffle and you do the Towing Tales). Their son, Graeme came and hung a tarpaulin which kept us dry and warm. By lunchtime weather had changed. We couldn't cook our stew on the fire pit in camp ovens. Crock Pots came out – problems solved. Unfortunately, with no fire pit Terry's Burning off the Dragon didn't happen. It will at another Rally. It looks really good, excellent job Terry (I'll keep his name a secret)

Saturday afternoon was cold and wet, a few members were following the storm on their phones with Arthur being our Weather Reporter! We were on the edge but will be OK over Saturday night. Phil told us on Sunday that we received 16ml's of rain overnight. Wally had his fire burning in the camp kitchen and with a bowl of hot stew and bread everyone was full and warm. There was enough stew left for some to fill a bowl and have Sunday night.

Norma closed the Rally after tea while we were all there.

Sunday

Some packed up and left early. By 10.30am there were 3 vans left. Some went home Monday, others left Tuesday. While we can't always have perfect weather being with friends in the great outdoors makes for a great time.
Looking forward to seeing everyone at Phumphries for our 10th Anniversary celebrations.

Cheers Wally & Lyn

Next up is 10th Anniversary Celebrations at Phumphries 4th/5th/6th June.
