TOWING TALES

NEWSLETTER

CONCORD CARAVANNERS OF W.A.

Fremantle Holiday Village

Friday 28th/ 30 June.

Not a lot to talk about in this Towing Tales,

Started off on Friday, arriving in Fremantle just on lunch time. To be greeted by the smiling faces of Sue & Terry as well as Lyn & Wally, along with the rain.

So it was get set up, so Julie could have the car, so she could wander off to meet up with an old work mate for lunch, which left me to adjourn to the camp kitchen to make my own lunch.

By the time Julie got back Albert & Marie arrived bringing with them more rain, so they too rocked up to the C/kitchen as well as Trudi calling in on her way home from work. Which then saw the arrival of Nancy & Rick pop in for a catch up (as they only live over the hill), after sharing all our news & drinking it was decided that we should wander off to our own vans for some dinner.

Saturday we welcomed pop in visitors Nancy again, on her own Rick had to work & Sue & Wayne who popped in for the day.

Terry opened the meeting in his usual banter welcoming us all & planning what we wanted to do for the week-end.

It was decided that Kallis for lunch was the go, with our daily visitors joining us as well. But just on that subject PLEASE remember if you park in Fremantle you do have to PAY for parking & read the signs yourself & not rely on your wife, $50 later. We then met up at the E Shed markets (I did buy a ticket there), for a look see.

We then as you will have guessed, it was back to the camp kitchen where Rick & Nancy joined us again for the evening.

It was time to have our committee meeting, with Diane & Robert joining us by this time, but as you can imagine it was a quick meeting with Robert chopping at the bit to get to the Derby game. Terry also presented Julie with “Hand it to ya” award for not reading parking signs.

We did the Raffle, which made $25, not bad for the number of members.

Then it was time for dinner & the Derby game. It was hard to watch the Dockers get done (again) by the Eagles, Julie & Terry were not happy.

Sunday morning, the sun was shining, my brother Wayne popped in for brekky

We farewelled Maree & Albert as they were leaving Monday morning to travel to VIC to pickup their new 2nd hand van, so we wished them safe travels.

Then it was off to the Fremantle Markets, where Nancy met up with us. Between Myself, Wally & Wayne Sewell the Eagles scarfs & beanies were selling fast. Then it was over to The Monk for coffee.

We all went our different ways to do what shopping we had to do, then back to the camp kitchen to relax, with Rick & Nancy joining us again. So more chit chat then time to adjourn back to our vans to get warn.

Monday morning we all bid farewell & safe travels till WhiteGum Farm.
