CONCORD CARAVANNERS OF W.A.

Riverview Caravan Park Eaton

Friday 15th / 17th Nov

Well the last rally for 2019. Next time we meet will be at the Christmas luncheon.

We Arrived Friday Lunch time, to be greeted by those that were lucky enough to be able to be there by Wednesday & Thursday.

It was a good turn out again, 8 vans + 1 visitor, a friend of Maree's & Albert's, Sandra Sampson.

Friday Arvo saw most of us heading down to 1 of 2 pools, to cool off & relax.

Poor Maree was the last to rock in, as she had to work.

Those that wanted adjourned to cooking pizza's for dinner, we opted to dial a pizza, which was pretty good.

After dinner was a quite sit back & catch up on what everyone has been up to. Then it was time to call it a night.

Saturday morning early saw Wally, Allen & myself head off to get the morning paper.

Morning tea was under the Marques. Pres Terry went through the 2020 rally list. The raffle raised $30. Albert was awarded the "hand it to you" award. For trying 2 times to use the sticker ABOVE the actual key pad to enter the gent's ablution block, so with the help of another person he was able to get in. There was also a special presentation to Lyn, but had nothing to do with our last rally at Binningup, it happened after everyone had gone home, just check the photo out to see what it was about.

Saturday afternoon we all wondered over to have another catchup with the Gypsy Rovers, for a well laid out afternoon tea. It was good to see them again. Friends of the Keillor's & Howard's came in for a drink or 2, Steph & Tom.

So after that it was back to our own camp for a few quite drinks before bed.

Sunday saw those that were going home, pack up & bid farewell till next time.

Those of us that stayed the extra night, just did our own thing. Julie & I along with Karen & Stewart wondered off to the Trash & Treasure market. Then some of us went visiting for afternoon tea at Steph's & Tom's.

Then back to the park for another quite drink.

Apart from Terry & Sue, the rest of us packed up Monday morning & headed for home.

So that was the end of another good rally.

Oh yes just one thing, please remember to check your caravan is SECURED onto the ball!

Now for the Photo's

The Hand it to you Award

Sign & photo says it all!

Not what it looks like, Mr Pres fell out of his chair

& quick mobile phone caught it happening.

Not alcohol induced, well so he says!
