Concord Caravan Club of WA

JUNE 2021

PHUMPHRIES BRIDGE

10 TH ANNIVERSARY

Let our weekend celebrations begin 26 people 10 vans 2 tents .We had the C.W.A. hall for three nights. Friday night with the fire burning some of us stayed in the hall for a catch up others sat around the fire pits between the caravans Saturday Good morning all round as we meet up in the hall for the opening of the rally Norma welcomed everyone and spoke about how the rally would be this weekend. The raffle would be drawn Sunday at morning tea (scones,jam, cream served by C.W.A. ladies) Terry's burning of the dragon would be 4.30 Saturday afternoon around the fire pit it was decided no happy hour before a dinner. Norma wanted everyone back in the hall or dressed up by 5.45 ready to party. Morning tea over Allen set up disc bowls for anyone wanted a game after lunch some ladies decorated the hall. We all had our chairs around the fire Terry had "DIE FREIHEIT" out on the table ready. A nice surprise Rick passed around scones he had made with Nancy's home made cherry jam yummy. The moment came in he went we all watched has he sparkled and went up in flames. Well done Terry. As we arrived for our dinner the room looked stunning everyone had made a super effort to look their best men in top and tails bow ties ladies in their finery. Orange and black down the table lets party Best dressed for the evening voted by the C.W.A. ladies was Erica and Bob congratulations guys Rick gave everyone a chocolate celebrated 10 years CONCORD. Norma called upon Paul to say grace and toast absent friends dinner was served followed by sweets. Norma presented founding members with a framed certificate of appreciation for their support over 10 years. Robert an extra award for outstanding contributions to the club congratulations to you all.

Sunday Morning tea in the hall. Raffle was drawn 1st Lyn (news letter again} 2nd Norma I know sounds rigged but above board drawn by Anna and Emma watched by Terry. Wally and Robert set up the T.V. under our annex ready for Eagles Carlton game. During the game there was a echo in the back ground (terry} clapping when Carlton kicked a goal sorry terry eagles won. Soup night in the hall saw Arthur and Terry wearing concord aprons serving soup to us all afterwards they washed and dried our dishes thanks guys. Monday, Well they say all good things must end and this weekend was one of them. Everyone packed up for home. Terry and Sue stayed one more night, morning tea in the hall Norma closed the rally everyone agreed a fantastic weekend celebrated 10 years of Concord.

Cheers Lyn & Wally

Motions approved by the Committee at the last meeting

Given that the Management Committee approves all income and expenditure at its regular meetings and the Treasurer provides a monthly statement which is approved by the committee and a property report is tabled for review on a regular basis, it is moved that the Committee is in effect the “auditor” and that an external audit of the accounts(including a property statement) is not required.

Committee Positions

The issue of the club not filling positions on the committee and whether we needed them all. E g Marshall& Property Officer was discussed, and the following motion put – That the club does not fill the positions of Marshall& Property Officer given the currant number of members but leave them in the Constitution to be filled as and when required.

AGM - Saturday 24th July at 10.30 Lions Club Mandurah followed by a lunch at Silver Sands Hotel for a 'pub menu lunch'. Advise Secretary if attending the lunch so we can advise numbers details to be provided shortly

Next Rally - Popanyinning 20th 22nd August; no deposit required, please advice Secretary if you are going. $30pn

Subs - a reminder subs of $40 are due on the 1st July and voting at the AGM is only open to financial members

Roving Rally - The Roving Rally has been cancelled for this year as indications where that there was limited interest,so we have booked Lazy Days caravan park in Busselton for the Queen's Birthday weekend 24th 29th September,$33.75pn details to follow.
